

Salvation Army Drive is Started Off With $10 $100 Pledges to $10,000 Fund

More in Prospect During the Afternoon, Says Chairman Franks.

CANVASS CITY SUNDAY

Team Ready Here, and in Town
Nearby, in Connellsville Corps Area
Ready for Whirlwind House-to-House Visitation to Complete Fight.

The Salvation Army drive started off in great shape this morning when a number of enthusiastic volunteers each were assigned a list of $100 up to $1,000. When the teams start out tomorrow, there should be a foundation fund of considerably more than $10,000 already in the hands of the donors.

They met this morning gave $100 each and several others who had pledged their willingness to give the sum had not yet been interviewed by the canvassing committee.

Those who had subscribed the $100 up to $1,000 were: F. E. Markell, J. Fred Kurtz, Meyer Aaron, Worth Kitzpatrick, J. J. Dougherty, Charles C. Mitchell, W. E. Sisson, G. Corrado, A. C. Stickle and C. B. Franks.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, workers of the Salvation Army will appear for $10,000 will go forth to their assigned territories and make a house-to-house canvass for funds. It is possible that some of the city's residents will be visited and contributions from 10 cents to the nearest a family can give will be asked.

Practically every worker knows that what is expected of him but the final instructions will be given again tomorrow before the men leave the Y. M. C. C.

Appeal Chairman C. B. Franks is well satisfied with the way things are progressing and the main work now rests with the team captains. Every group has pledged itself to complete the work in its individual territory and this will mean that when the committee gets its district cleaned up there will be no more work for the day.

The exact amount secured by the canvass will not be known until Tuesday evening when the committee will meet at 8 o'clock in the city hall.

There will be a few reports made tomorrow evening. The canvass will not be known until the Tuesday evening reports are filed.

The workers are going into the drive with spirit. They feel that it is helping the entire poor population of the community in one sweep. With money in its treasury, the Salvation Army never allows the needy to want, and when residents here contribute to the organization's fund they are asked to make reports to the commanding officer whenever they know of a needy case or distressed family.

The fund for the Connellsville territory raised last year is very low at this time and will not hold out much longer. As colder weather is approaching and needs of many are great, the drive on the Army fund may be even heavier than in the past year.

The drive will be on in the outlying towns of the Connellsville corps area at the same time.

Salvation Army To Feature Song Service Tonight

A new and novel feature will be introduced in the service of the Salvation Army at this evening when, instead of singing the street meeting only as has been the custom, there will be a popular musical program to be continued every Saturday night during the winter.

As an inducement to get the transients who usually come to Connellsville about the week-end and who stay around the streets to come into the hall coffee and dining will be served at the close.

This kind of service has become very common in the larger cities and is proving very popular. With the coming to the city of so many men looking for work it will be an inducement to get in touch with them and help by providing a hearty, cheery and uplifting social hour and feeding the inner man.

It is proposed to ask local talent to help with their offerings during the winter and introduce other features.

It is expected that the snow will be very light and will melt quickly.

DETROIT BANDITS MAKE GREAT HAUL OF MAIL POUCHES

Loot in Registered Mail and Bank Shipments May Reach Half Million.

OFFICIALS CHECKING UP

By Associated Press.

DETROIT, Oct. 8.—Federal agents, state troopers and Detroit police joined forces today in the search for four men who held up a Canadian mail wagon late last night as it neared the main post-office with a load of pouches from Windsor, Ont.

Meanwhile Windsor and Detroit postal officials were checking the records to determine the value of mail in the 25 bags taken by the bandits. Two of the pouches carried registered packages and early estimates placed the value as high as $100,000.

Canadian banks made a practice of sending their Detroit correspondents each night their receipts of American money. At times the payments amount to as much as $500,000.

One of the banks, according to Windsor postal officials, combined a pouch of registered mail for Detroit and one for Chicago. Yesterday's receipts at the Canadian bank were $100,000. It was believed, wrote in the other pouch, occasionally, the race track receipts, which are mailed to a Detroit bank each night, amount to many thousands.

Cannot Cut Off Gas Supply, Says Public Service Commission

HARRISBURG, Oct. 8.—The Public Service Commission in an opinion handed down yesterday declared it had jurisdiction to require the York and Lancaster Gas company to continue to furnish natural gas to the Johnstown Fuel Supply company and also ordered the company to file a new tariff of rates. The decision was based on complaints by the city of Johnstown and Cumby Steel company and involved the pitifully whether the People's company could be required to furnish gas to a company owned by the Johnstown Fuel Supply company and whether the Johnstown company being a distributor was in the same position as a company manufacturing and distributing.

Effect of the decision is to hold that the People's company, notwithstanding its termination, its contract with the Johnstown company October 1, 1920, must continue to furnish gas as it has been doing pending decision in the case.

The People had set up the contention that the Public Service Commission did not have jurisdiction because the former obtains its gas from West Virginia.

Negroes Guilty On Three Counts In Cutting Case

A verdict was returned today in the case of Bailey Dyer, William Clark and Clyde Jamison, three United Negroes charged with assaulting and feloniously cutting Charles Noff and Frank Ross on Main street of that city on May 7 last.

The charges against the men were assault with battery, aggravated assault and battery, unlawful cutting and unlawful cutting with intent to kill and murder.

In the Noff and Ross case the defendants were found guilty on the first three counts and acquitted on the fourth. In the Ross and the men were acquitted on all four charges.

Trouble arose when the defendants refused to move from the street, as Ross drove up in his automobile. Words ensued and a fight followed. Ross was worried and went to his car to get a tool with which to defend himself. Noff, a bystander, asked the negroes what they meant by "gauging" one man. The trio then assaulted him. The scars sustained were exhibited to the jury.

RAIN CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF FOURTH GAME

Delay May Result in Benefit to Yankees, Permitting Use of Pitcher Mays Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Rain caused postponement of the fourth game of the world series between the Giants and the Yankees. It began to rain hard at 1 o'clock and it soon became evident that playing today would be impossible.

The postponement was welcomed by the Yankees. It will give opportunity for Pitcher Carl Mays to become rested and ready for slab duty in the next game. It also leaves room for hope that Babe Ruth may have so far recovered from the effects of an abscess on the arm to get into the fray again.

"Fair weather is promised for Sunday," said the weather bureau.

POLO GROUNDS, Oct. 8.—It began to rain hard at 1 o'clock and the prospects for today's game looked dubious. The crowds in the uncovered stands used newspapers to shelter themselves. Ruth came to the game and sat in the grandstand. His arm was in a sling.

POLO GROUNDS, Oct. 8.—Babe Ruth was among the missing when the Yankees gathered at their club house here today to make ready for their battle with the Giants in the fourth engagement of the world series. The home run king was up all night with an abscess on his arm which his physician has lanced. His doctor ordered him not to play and there was a question whether he would play again in the series.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Their batting slights risk and not for sharpening the New York Giants were determined today to bombard the Yankees with a selection and gain an even footing in the world series.

Manager McGraw intimated he would send "Shuffle" Phil Douglas to the mound in an effort to hold the Yankee sluggers while his own march to their second victory. Harry Harper, the Hackenschack, N. J. hurler, is most likely to oppose Phil and if the Yankees are in form the fourth game of the series may develop another pitchers' battle.

Suffering from an abscess on his arm as a result of his base stealing in the second game Babe Ruth will be compelled to watch the contest from the bench. Wilson Ewator will take his place in the event that Babe is unable to play. Ruth, who still lacks a score home run, may get a chance to reach his if the season's earnings are in the fourth game.

"My greatest desire," said the Babe, "is to crown my world series career with a homer into the stands. I'd die easy if I could do it."

Today being a half holiday for business people in New York a record crowd was expected to pick the Polo grounds.

"We are off now. Watch us from this time on," is Manager McGraw's message to the supporters of the Giants.

"We will be right back for another victory," was the word to the Yankee fans from Manager Miller Huggins.

McGraw declared yesterday's victory had renewed the confidence of his players. "I am more certain now than ever that the Giants will win the series," he said.

Thomas Newell Dies Few Hours Following Demise of Granddaughter.

SHE IS TYPHOID VICTIM

Several hours following the death of his granddaughter, Miss Melva Thompson Friday morning, Thomas Newell, 77 years old, a pioneer resident of Lower Tyrone township, and one of the few Civil War veterans of that community, died Friday night at his home. St. James Hotel Bartender Freed On Liquor Charge

Anthony Gishada, bartender at the St. James hotel, was acquitted on charges of illegal sale of liquor and the case was divided equally between the defendant and the prosecutor, P. M. Murphy, former county detective. In each of the cases where Mr. Murphy signed the information he was acting in his official capacity at the instance of the Committee of One Hundred.

Mr. McClintock testified that he and his associate, Elgin Grant, entered the St. James hotel, Connellsville, on the evening of June 21, last, and purchased a pint of whisky for $3 from the defendant, and again on June 23 last, and purchased another pint for $3. He said the defendant had the whisky in his coat hanging in the rear of the bar. As he laid a $5 bill upon the counter he said the defendant told him to keep the money down as you couldn't tell who might be around—probably some of the Committee of One Hundred.

The defendant denied making either of the sales, saying that the sale was made by a man whom he did not know, leading in the bar room at the time.

Counsel for the defense made a vigorous attack upon the reputation of the investigators directing the jury attention to his admission of arrest. Elgin Grant, the other investigator in the case was not present.

Kluxen Boy Denies Any Knowledge of Death of Little Janet Lawrence

By Associated Press.

MADISON, N. J., Oct. 8.—Frank Kluxen, a 14-year-old boy, was held by the police today on a charge of committing one of the most brutal crimes in the history of New Jersey, the murder of Janet Lawrence, 13 years old. The girl's body was found yesterday in a clump of weeds owned by the Kluxen boy's father.

Janet, according to the police, had been trussed up and had been with her, attacked and then smothered 95 times. One stroke of the knife severed the jugular vein.

Young Kluxen denied all knowledge of the crime. Suspect first fastened on him when he was aiding in the search for Janet. He was observed to be trembling violently and, in answer to questions, mumbled, "Awful!" "Awful!"

Early today young Kluxen was taken to the county jail at Morristown and submitted to further questioning.

"They haven't a thing on the boy," his father, said after the examination. "How could he come into the house after a crime like that, out upper and afterward go to bed and sleep soundly? They questioned him for four hours but got nothing from him but a perfectly reasonable and straight story."

Big Consignment Of Liquor Seized Near County Seat

Twenty thousand dollars worth of bonded whiskey in 200 cases, being hauled in two trucks, was seized on the Morgantown road, near Uniontown, as it entered last evening by Constable Walter Brown and Deputy Constable Ray Thomas after an investigation by J. W. Dawson and Thomas H. Hudson of the Committee of One Hundred.

The whiskey was being moved under a permit, numbered 44,651, of the federal revenue, from the Gibson Distilling company, of Brownsville, to, according to the permit, Dixon City, in the western part of the state, where it was consigned to the Federal Manufacturing company.

The committee alleges that the whiskey was being moved to Point Marion. The trucks were driven by Frank Nease, Edward Long, Harry Pierce and John H. White, all of Brownsville. The consignment was in charge of John Ditzgen.

The trucks were taken to Uniontown where the whiskey is being held. The men were released pending an investigation of the permit.

Why Catholics Go to Church Is Told by Lecturer

Father Carl H. Demarest explained last night why Catholics go to church on Sunday in his lecture at Sacred Heart church, Dawson. The high percentage of attendance among Catholics at religious services on Sunday is very noticeable everywhere. The reason he gave for this was that the mass was "such a highly satisfactory act of devotion to Almighty God."

"The secretary has always had his place in religion and it is the highest expression of worship—the offering of something to God and recognition of the fact that God is the creator of all things, our Lord and Master," he said.

The lecturer described the sacrifices of the old law, where sheep, goats, doves and grain or the fruit of the vine were the objects offered in sacrifice. It was explained that these sacrifices were merely a type of the greater and more perfect sacrifice.

Understanding the significance of the mass, attendance at its offering is a source of great satisfaction to one who seeks to do good things which go immediately toward honoring Almighty God.

IT CAN'T BE BEAT STATES DONAHOE

Tablet Has Simply Been a Blessing to Our Home, Declares Pittsburg Citizen

"Tablet has helped my wife and myself so much that we both think it the greatest medicine in the world," said John Donahoe, 1120 Locust street, Pittsburg, Pa., a well-known employee of the O'Herron Contracting company. "I praise Tablet as long as I live, and my wife feels the same way about it. I had such a bad case of stomach trouble, that no matter what I ate, I just suffered for hours afterward. One I had been so bad but I felt like I had swallowed a red hot piece of iron and I got to where I could hardly eat anything. My nerves were so strained I just lay awake for hours every night, and during the day I had severe headaches and dizzy spells that almost put me past going. Many a day I had to stay at home from my work just because I was so weak and run down I couldn't stay on the job. My wife suffered pretty much the same way. I did, but Tablet has relieved me of all my troubles and now I'm in the best of health again. I'm eating just as I please. I sleep well every night, and in fact, feel just like a brand new man. My wife has a fine appetite, eats three hearty meals every day and never complains of any of the troubles she used to have. Tablet certainly has been a blessing in our home."

Smithfield.
SAUTHFIELD, Oct. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Dale Field, Mrs. Donald Abraham and Mrs. John Lowe attended the Baptist association at Connellsville Wednesday, October 7.

Miss Ellen Clemmer and Miss Dora Breakiron have returned after visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Chris Decker in Connellsville.

A touring car containing a man, wife and four children was struck by a Baltimore & Ohio work train on the crossing at On, Pa. last evening. The driver and owner of the car made an effort to cross the track ahead of the approaching train when the car fell out of a large experience as a Bible teacher. All are urged to attend these lectures.

Had it not been for the prompt action on the part of Engineer R. DeBolt an accident of a more serious nature would have resulted. The automobile, which was practically a new one, was badly damaged. The doctors, from Smithfield, took charge of the injured.

The Blue Bird club met at the home of May Leach on Liberty avenue. The evening was spent in fancy work and music, after which a delay lunch was served by the hostess.

Miss Emma Stafford Miller of Australia is giving a series of lectures and Bible readings at the Methodist Episcopal church, held at 7:30 and 9:30 P. M. Miss Miller comes to us out of a large experience as a Bible teacher. All are urged to attend these lectures.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 8, 1921.

A COUNTY-WIDE CELEBRATION OF ARMISTICE DAY.

Making the celebration of Armistice Day a county-wide affair is an ambitious undertaking but it is not out of proportion to the importance of the anniversary, nor is it beyond the capabilities of these in charge.

In each of the preceding years the observance of the day which brought the World War to a close has been purely local in character and the participants have been residents of Conneltsville and vicinity. Feeling that the occasion should once in a while be commemorated on a somewhat larger scale than heretofore, the members of Milton L. Bishop Post No. 301, The American Legion, are planning to make the third anniversary of one of the most significant events in history both imposing and impressive.

The tentative plans contemplate a military parade in which all posts of the county will be represented together with several units of the Pennsylvania National Guard. This display will be augmented by an industrial section in the parade. A program of sports and other events will add to the variety of the day's attractions. Speakers of note will deliver inspiring addresses and appropriate memorial services in honor of those who died for civilization's sake will be held on the Sunday preceding the formal celebration.

The project is one that should enlist the interest and support of every patriotic citizen. All too rarely has there been opportunity, such as this day will provide, for our people to witness demonstrations of this kind. Not since the home-coming celebration in the summer of 1919 has any attempt been made anywhere in the county to do more than stage purely local gatherings of the veterans. For this reason, and the very important purpose of keeping alive the spirit of comradeship among the men who served, and as a means of stimulating a healthy and vigorous patriotism, the plans for a county-wide celebration of Armistice Day are singularly appropriate.

Courage, energetic and hard-working as is the leadership in this undertaking it cannot be made the kind of a success it should be, and which the reputation of Conneltsville requires, without the hearty and willing cooperation of all our citizens. This should be given with less desire to reflect flatteringly upon the city than to honor to the men who helped force Germany's sue for peace.

BETTER CITY GOVERNMENT.

The friends of better municipal government in Conneltsville will be encouraged in their efforts to know that the local Democratic Organ, following the example of the New York World, advocates the election of candidates of the opposing party ticket at the forthcoming election.

This unexpected frank declaration will therefore be construed as indicating our contemporaries' purpose to urge the election of Charles C. Mitchell as mayor and the candidates for city council and school director on the Republican ticket, even more consistently than it sought to bring about Mr. Mitchell's nomination.

THE COUNTY'S MEMORIAL TO HER SONS.

The joint appeal of the Grand Army and other veterans for the voters of Fayette county to make possible the early erection of a permanent and useful memorial to all the service men, living and dead, of all the wars in which the country has had or may hereafter have representation, is one that cannot be denied. The arguments set forth in this appeal are unanswerable and are fairly and convincingly presented. No persons except those belonging to that unpatriotic group whose members would deny every form of recognition or honor to the men who responded to the call of duty in the hour of their country's need, will attempt to controvert the reasons given why this memorial should be built.

The project having the approval of four successive grand juries, and the county commissioners being authorized by law to proceed with the construction after approval by the voters, all that remains to bring Fayette county in line with other progressive and wide-awake counties is for the voters to signify their assent. To do so they will merely have to vote "Yes" on the proposal at the November election. If a majority so votes the expenditure of $250,000 for the erection of a memorial building at the county seat, which is to serve as a lasting monument to all soldiers, sailors and marines of Fayette county and a place of safe keeping of the county's military records, will be authorized to be raised by an increase of approximately one-fourth mill in the county tax levy over a period of 10 years. This will form so insignificant an addition to the taxes of even the largest taxpayers as to be scarcely noticeable and for the average citizen the tax will be but a few cents annually.

By no other means could there be so widespread a distribution of the cost of such a memorial or better opportunity for every citizen to share in it. It is to be the county's tribute to her loyal sons and should very properly be provided by all the citizens of every section.

The Most Warlike Nation.

Losing Faith In Santa.

Batting Averages.
Philadelphia Ledger.

The professional baseball player knows very well that his value to his team and, consequently, his livelihood depend directly on his hitting the ball when he is at bat and catching and throwing it when he is in the field.

Babe Ruth is not paid a fancy salary or lifted to a place of the loftiest among popular idols for merely "facing the pitcher when at the plate or holding down the second base in the field."

He is the monarch of the diamond for "whaling the ball out of the lot." The crowd goes to see him do it, and he very often does it.

Whether it is baseball or less spectacular indoor business, what a man is worth depends on his day-in, day-out performance at the bat, on the bases, or in the field.

No matter how good he thinks he is, he's got to prove it. He must prove it by open competition. He is not playing solitaire. His chance comes whizzing toward him. In a fraction of a second he will meet or miss it. If he makes a hit, the crowd goes wild; and, what matters a great deal more, a run or several runs may be set down to the credit of his side. If he strikes out he is merely joining the ranks of the forgotten thousands of ignominious performers.

Nearly everybody makes a hit some time. But to keep it up is quite another matter. In the great game of human life are many erratic performers who once in a while, at fever heat, as a burst of inspiration, surprise themselves and all beholders. But the world prefers to place its trust not on a chance of such erratic brilliancy, but on a certainty of sober, steadfast and methodic discharge of the duty of each working day.

A home run now and then will not offset consistent "weakness with the stick" the rest of the time. The man who neglects his business most of the year cannot expect to make up for it by a flurried spurt of activity here and there.

Just Folks

Edgar A. Guest.

FAVORS.

Favors are easy to get, for favors are easy to ask. But who gets the hand of another to work must share with another the task.

"Help!" is the commonest cry. It begins with the dawn of the day. For few have the courage to stand up alone and go to the end of the way.

A favor will open the door, but the proof of your worth and your insight is to battle your way all alone to the top and claim the reward as your right.

And what if the world doesn't see the hands that have favored you so. Through the days and the weeks and the months and the years the truth of your glory you know.

Who rises by favor shall find with regret that he owes to his giver. That the "favors" granted him has taken from them have forced him to live as a slave.

Oh, better it is not to rise to the heights where life's glories are known. Then be contented on high by the hands of your friends and built on the success of your own.

Do look stamped in the strictly cash grocery this morning. I had my pipe and found the proprietor leaning over the counter dead. The owner says he's probably been dead a week or ten days. "I should say it is terrible, but no money would buy me an inch of rope again if I was single, sold large, had day."

Allen Patterson of East Liberty was transacting business in Conneltsville Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Allen Crawford entertained the regular fall of the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday afternoon, the house being from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. A large number of the little ones were present. This is an annual event and the little ones always look forward to it.

A SLIGHT GAIN IN BEEHIVE COKE; SOFT COAL STILL BETTER

Former Increases 4,000 Tons; Latter Attains Highest Mark Since January Last.

Production of beehive coke in the United States again showed a slight increase, according to the weekly report of the United States Geological Survey, compiled by F. G. Tryon. The total output in the week ended September 24 is estimated at 13,000 net tons, an increase over the revised figure for the preceding week of 4,000 tons. That the depression in the industry has been but little relieved, however, is seen in the fact that the output in the corresponding week in 1920 was nearly six times as large. Production in the Conneltsville region, according to The Courier, was 13,760 tons against 41,370 in the week preceding.

Cumulative production during 1921 to date now stands at 4,032,000 net tons, but little more than one-fourth that in 1920.

Production by states, compared with the corresponding week of 1920, was as follows:

Pennsylvania and Ohio	53,000	370,000
West Virginia	2,000	28,000
Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia	1,000	26,000
Virginia and Kentucky	5,000	24,000
Colorado, Oklahoma and New Mexico	1,000	10,000
Washington and Utah	1,000	4,000
U. S. Total	64,000	402,000

Continued improvement marked the production of bituminous coal in the week and the resulting increase carried the output to the highest mark attained since the last week in January.

The total output for the week, including lignite, coal coked at the mines, and mine fuel, is estimated at 5,500,000 net tons. This was an increase over the week preceding of 312,000 net tons, or 5.8 per cent.

The year 1921 is in round numbers 30,000,000 tons behind 1919, 100,000,000 tons behind 1920, and about 129,000,000 tons behind the average of the war years. Compared with the average of all four years, it is 102,000,000 tons behind.

Before concluding that this substantial production forecasts a possible shortage later, it is necessary to take into account the decrease in consumption which has resulted from the business depression. During the first quarter of 1921 consumption was about 20 per cent less than in the corresponding period in 1920. No statistics are available, however, to show at what rate coal has been consumed since then.

Pennsy Will Cut Rates on Ore to Lakes and Seaboard

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—The Pennsylvania railroad announced yesterday it would "in the very near future" make application to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to place in effect a temporary reduction of 28 per cent in the freight rates on iron ore from both the Great Lakes and the seaboard to the furnaces in the Pittsburgh and Youngstown districts, the Schuylkill valley and elsewhere in Ohio, Pennsylvania and the east, as well as local mines.

The reduction would remain in effect only until December 31, 1921.

"The purpose of the reduction," the announcement said, "is to assist the iron and steel producers in accumulating a supply of ore before the winter closes navigation on the lakes or compels the shut down of northern mines; also to try out experimentally whether a materially lowering level rates by cheapening the production of pig iron will stimulate iron and steel markets."

The 28 per cent reduction being applied to the level of rates now in effect will substantially wipe out the 59 per cent increase made effective August 26, 1920.

The reduction was decided upon after conferences with other eastern trunk line railroads.

BUILDING BOOM

In Somerset, started by Home Builders Club of B. & O. Employees.

The success of the Somerset Home Builders club, composed of Baltimore & Ohio employees residing there, furnishes an example to other communities seeking a solution of the house shortage problem.

Organized last spring, with Conductor Martin R. Bauman, president, and Yardmaster J. E. Dice, secretary, 31 houses ranging in price from $5,000 to $8,500 have been built or are nearing completion for members of the club, and many others are being planned.

The activities of the club started a building boom in the community which is estimated will reach about $800,000 in value when structures now under way are completed.

HAD NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Mrs. Ireland Permits us to Publish this Letter for the Benefit of Others Who Are in Her Condition

Warsaw, Missouri,—"For five years I was weakly, nervous and in a run-down condition. Then I had a nervous breakdown and doctors said I would never be well again. After I took seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was healthier, stronger and felt better than I ever did in my life before. I can't praise the Compound enough and will recommend it to all women. You may publish this letter if you think it will help others."—Mrs. FLOYD IRELAND, R. R. 1, Warsaw, Missouri.

Nervous women are both ailing and distressed, and with a nervous breakdown all the good out of a woman's life is said that the illness peculiar to women act on the nerves like a firebrand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming such conditions, as a large number of American women who were once great sufferers from nerve troubles owe their present health and comfort to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Engineer Pinned Fast Directs Work of Rescue Four Hours

By Associated Press.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Held underneath a locomotive which toppled into a ditch at Churchville, 12 miles from here, wrecking another engine and a freight train of 88 cars, Mohr Gerber, 50 years old, a New York Central engineer of Newark, N. Y., directed his rescuers for more than four hours early today while a physician gave medical aid and a clergyman administered the last rites of his church. Gerber finally was released but in a dying condition by members of a wrecking crew cutting through the heavy steel mass that held him prisoner.

Throughout the process of rescue the doomed engineer held the heavy door of the fire box from coming open and emptying its hot coals on him. Escaping steam made the work of the rescue crew hazardous.

Gerber collapsed as the men completed the task of cutting their way to him. He was brought to the general hospital here on a special train.

GAS TAX FLOODS TREASURY.

With a Stream of Small Payments From Retail Dealers.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 7.—The new state gasoline tax is proving productive of the greatest numbers of small taxpayers on record, and state treasury officials, confronted with a flood of small payments, are trying to work a system for expeditious handling of what is to be a monthly affair.

Several thousand dealers in gasoline have sent in reports and payments, and in only a few cases have the sums exceeded $100. Some of them have been under $1 and a number of such taxpayers have remitted with stamps.

"THE TRUTH ABOUT HUSBANDS."—A first National picture, is the best attraction today. The picture is a screen version of Arthur Wing Pinero's brilliant society drama, which held the boards for several seasons and has passed through many revivals because it is so popular and full of drama. It is head and shoulders above the ordinary screen drama. It is fairly sparkling and snappy with clever lines and tense situations. It is superbly mounted and splendidly enacted by a well balanced cast headed by Anna Lehr. The story tells the life of a woman who marries and finds the life a wild swirl and bold strokes, baring the truth in a way that fascinates the spectator to the conclusion. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday "The Old Nest" will be presented.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE FACE OF THE WORLD."—The picture being shown today is the feature picture. The leading roles are played by Miss Barbara Bedford and Edward Hearn, who have been seen here in some of the biggest screen successes of the past seasons. Miss Bedford will be remembered for her appealing work in two Maurice Tourneur productions, "Deep Waters" and "The Last of the Mohicans," while Mr. Hearn has played opposite many of the most prominent feminine stars of the day. The remainder of the cast includes such popular players as Lloyd Whitlock, Gordon Mullen and J. P. Lockkey.

Monday and Tuesday "The Midland" will be shown.

AND that's saying a great deal when you consider that never was there such a season for diversity of mode and beauty of coloring.

Every one especially designed to enhance the longer skirt length, the flowing sleeve and other attractive style trends of the season.

As for price—we'll let Friday and Saturday discourse upon that topic. For these happy days will feature.

Two Groups of Hats

Other winter needs are:

Galvanized window boxes (which serve as winter time window refrigerators) with drop door and shelf—$4.35.

$25 can buy an attractive Fall suit

THE suit department asks you to imagine yourself fully arrayed in a new Fall suit with comfortable fur collar—or a plain tailored model if you prefer—at an expenditure of only $25.

It seems almost incredible but it's a quite consoling fact.

The suits herein referred to are all of a good quality of wool velour, plain tailored in some cases, in others fur trimmed—every one following the latest fashion dictate of the season.

Coming in such fashionable colors as brown, navy and Sorrento they are really quite worthy rivals of their more expensive neighbors and at the price are as good a value as we've been able to offer in some seasons.

If you think it wise to limit your clothing expenditures this year you must see these today.

Those new $48.00 coats

JUST one week ago we told you of a special purchase whereby it became possible for us to offer you winter coats at the ridiculous price (considering the garments) of $38 and $48.

Needless to say the response was immediate and large. But, fortunately there are still some very attractive models left.

The weather we've been having this week makes the purchase of a coat not only desirable but absolutely necessary for most of us.

And therefore you are invited to avail yourself of this second opportunity to purchase a beautiful garment at so reasonable a price.

The models are fashioned in Normandy, Bolivia, Pollyanna and other seasonable cloths, fully silk lined—some trimmed in beaverette, skunk and opossum. The colors are taupe, seal, navy, Sorrento and black.

Bear in mind that such silk garments as petticoats, waists, gowns and camisoles are also reduced in this event.
